

Neshanic Station Flea Market

The Neshanic United Methodist Church is replacing the old Neshanic Flea Market with the new Neshanic Station Flea Market. It is located directly across the road from the old flea market, at 111 Elm Street, at the foot of the historic Neshanic Station Bridge.

- ◆ Schedule: The new Neshanic Station Flea Market is open Saturdays from 7:30 am to 1:00 pm and will run every Saturday (weather permitting) through the Fall.
- ◆ Vendors: Just $10 to rent a spot for the day. This is an outdoor flea market, so bring your own tables or racks to display your goods. All types of merchandise – antiques, collectibles, furniture, jewelry, housewares, tools, electronics, games, videos, books, toys, arts and crafts, memorabilia, clothing, etc. – are welcome. We also welcome sellers of honey, fresh fruits and vegetables, and other food items.
- ◆ Shoppers: Attendance is FREE and there's lots of free parking.
- ◆ Directions: The Flea Market is just minutes from Route 202. To find the location via GPS, enter “111 Elm Street, Branchburg, NJ”.
- ◆ Facilities: The church rest rooms will be open for vendors and shoppers, and the church has coffee, pastry, cold drinks and snacks for sale.

The new Neshanic Flea Market is sponsored by the Neshanic United Methodist Church as a service to the community. The church will have a booth at the Flea Market where we will collect food and donations for the Somerset County Food Pantry. We welcome you to worship with us Sunday mornings at 10:30.
